

VOLLEYBALL COACHES WANTED

Coaches' Interest Meeting

Sept. 15th, 12:00PM

NC COASTAL VOLLEYBALL CLUB is looking for quality coaches. If you are a volleyball coach or have solid volleyball playing experience and want to learn to coach the sport you love, NC Coastal may be the place for you.

We are an established and growing club in Wilmington, NC whose mission is to prepare student athletes for excellence in the sport of volleyball through advanced physical training and education of the sport. We provide a competitive and positive training environment for all skill levels from beginners to advanced athletes seeking to play on the collegiate level.

If you view coaching as a privilege and a profession and are a strong advocate for continuing education for both players and coaches, then NC Coastal is the right place for you to continue or start your coaching career. We believe players and coaches alike should be life long learners so we partner with Gold Medal Squared Elite Volleyball Training to provide our coaches with the latest tools and methods based on principles and research to teach volleyball and guide player development.

To RSVP for the 9/15 Coaches' Interest Meeting, for information about our club, or to apply please contact:
